

The popular and energetic republican candidate for recorder of Coconino county was in the city Wednesday commingling with his ardent supporters. Rough Rider Sellers is making friends at every point he visits.

Manchester Maxwell was here the early part of the week. Mr. Maxwell has a bunch of sheep northeast of Flagstaff. He is an old Tennessean. During the civil war he fought in General Forrest's famous cavalry.

The Grand Canyon stage line has closed for the season. J. W. Thurber, the proprietor, says that the business of the stage line this season has not been profitable, only 267 visitors being carried since the opening in April last.

The Great Wallace shows offer a challenge of $10,000 to produce the equal of the Nelson family of acrobats, and the Pittsburg Chronicle asserts that this will never be taken, as the world don't contain another such family.

Miss Florence Heavenston of Prescott, is the daughter of Dr. Heavenston, who is now here. She is a violin virtuoso and is said to be the only 17-year-old girl in Arizona who is a violin artist. Her talent is lent to all charitable affairs.

Floe Donahue, who went to Chicago some time since to have a delicate operation performed, is getting along nicely. Floe's many friends are gratified to hear such comforting news from him and hope for his speedy return to Flagstaff.

A change in the time card of the Santa Fe Pacific railroad took place yesterday. The fast trains were put on and are known as Nos. 3 and 4. No. 3, west bound, arrives here on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays at 9:50 p. m. No. 4, east bound, arrives here on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays at 8:19

a. m. The mail trains arrive here a few minutes later than by the old time card, No. 1 at 9:30 and No. 2 at 10:40 a. m.

Rev. J. H. Weber of Preston, Ohio, who has been holding the series of meetings in the M. E. church for the past two weeks, will give the last of the illustrated sermons on "Christ in Art" by the aid of his stereopticon, on Sabbath evening November 6th, and it will be a rare treat. Please don't forget that we are to take up a special collection on this occasion to meet the expenses of the evangelist. Those who have enjoyed the benefits of this work should be willing to help meet the expenses incurred. Come and enjoy this service, and make your offerings as large as possible.

Lon Hill sent two fine bred chickens to Sandy Donahue. George Babbitt had made a similar consignment previously. When the Hill chicks arrived Sandy sent them home and telephoned not to mix them with the Babbitt chickens. His wife supposed from their plumpness they were intended for supper and accordingly had them dressed, stuffed and baked in the highest culinary art. When he found this out Sandy could find no words adequate to express his feelings, but he made the best of the mistake and invited some friends to partake of baked chickens valued at $5 per pound.

A cock is a cock
In pitor in pot.

For sale—Restaurant doing a business of $25 a day, fine team of black horses will be sold cheap for cash; also house and four lots at a bargain. Enquire of George Morris at second hand store.

Ladies' calling cards, in the correct styles, printed in the latest copper-plate script at this office.